

I did it for a better job.
I did it for my son.
I did it for a better future.

I earned my GED.

- Arturo Flores

Arturo Flores dropped out of school in 8th grade and turned to a life of drugs and crime. He chose to break the cycle and got sober, earned his GED and enrolled in college. He plans to earn his master's degree and work with gang-affiliated youth – to help them have a better future, too.

I earned my GED.

- Donna Whitworth

Donna Whitworth, like other family members, dropped out of school. She broke the cycle, however, when she earned her GED. She went on to pass the Kentucky Paraeducator Assessment, which enabled her to apply for a job at the adult education center where she earned her GED. She is now administrative assistant there!
