KHEAA webinar posted & reminder

I'm pleased to report that last week's KHEAA webinar, "KHEAA at Your Service," is now available to watch here.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to remind you that KHEAA is one of many resources available to you as you help your students transition to postsecondary education. We encourage you to continue making use of other resources you may have available to you locally, including TRIO, Educational Opportunity Centers, KCTCS and other local college and training program contacts, etc., in addition to the resources that KHEAA offers. As they say, it takes a village!
