New KYAE Lesson Bank to launch March 13th

Attention all KYAE educators:

The long-awaited KYAE Lesson Bank website will launch on March 13th. A team of KYAE staff, contractors and instructors has been hard at work to transfer the more than 100 lessons which have been accepted to the bank over the past three years into the new online bank. With the help of website developer Jeff Moser, we expect the majority of lessons to be viewable and available for download beginning on the 13th.

Though anyone from anywhere may search and preview lessons on the site, only those who create a free account may download a lesson. Even with an account, new lesson submissions will be accepted only from KYAE instructors and contractors using the provided digital KYAE lesson templates. Both the RLA and Mathematics templates have been updated to reflect the key instructional shifts inherent in the College and Career Readiness Standards (CCRS). Therefore, guides for the templates are available on every screen step, as well as text explaining each field.

KYAE instructors may take a virtual tour of the new bank by attending one of two webinars presented by Dr. Patricia Erwin of the Adult Education Academy at Morehead State University where the new lesson bank resides.

The webinar will be offered two times: Tuesday, March 14th at 3:00 pm Eastern Time and Wednesday, March 15th at 1:00 pm Eastern Time. No registration is necessary. You can access either webinar using the links provided below.
